He stood practically debarred from entering the United States Senate under the United States Statutes, and yet went to his death before sentence could be executed. The United States Senate has always been a conservative body, extremely slow to take violent action, and had not even asked Senator Mitchell to resign from the committees of which he was a member, but the Senator, realizing the position his colleagues were in, sent in his resignation, and asked to be left off of all committees. Oregon has one uncorrupted member in Congress, Senator Fulton, and topographic and geologic surveys of he will, on Monday, Dec. 11, announce the death of Senator Mitchell; but will he proceed to the further announcement or request that "The Senate do now adjourn as a mark of respect to the late Senator from Oregon?" That is the correct motion, but can the United States Senate ignore the conviction and sentence to the penitentiary of a member of its honorable body, is a question that about 89 of them are asking each other. It is usual to appoint a number of members of the House and of the Senate as an escort for the body of a dead member. Will the two Houses of Congress do this? It is thought probable that this matter will not be touched upon, as it would be impossible to reach Portland in time for the funeral under any conditions. Among the Pennsylvania veterans
